MATTHEW 25:6

Welcome! Whether you are a long-time member of St. Matthew, a first-time visitor, or somewhere in between, we are thankful you are here today. If you have questions or any needs, please let a name-tagged usher know. We hope that you experience God's love during worship today.

Our Purpose:

Welcoming all as we share God's love.

Our Goals:

Enliven faith through worship and learning
Cultivate shared leadership as disciples of Jesus
Engage children, youth, and families
Bridge the gaps with home-insecure neighbors
Build authentic relationships across differences

About today*:* We gather as a community to worship God by singing, praying, listening to scripture, hearing a message and celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

Our regular weekend schedule includes Saturday worship at 5:00 p.m., Sunday 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 indoors with 10:30 a.m. livestreamed. You can find our livestream on our website or on Youtube (links can be found on the last page of the bulletin).

Introduction to the Day: Today the prophet Amos calls for justice to roll down like waters. Paul urges us to encourage one another with the promised coming of the Lord. Jesus tells the parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids. Surrounded by the faithful of every time and place, we celebrate Christ's coming in our midst in the word of life and the feast of victory—the marriage feast of the Lamb.

✢ THE WORD ✢

FIRST READING: Amos 5:18-24

In the days of Amos, people thought that the day of the LORD would be a time of great victory, but Amos announced that it would be a day of darkness, not light. He said liturgy is no substitute for obedience. The LORD demands justice and righteousness in the community.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm: Psalm 70 Please read responsively.

1 Be pleased, O God, to deliver me;
O LORD, make haste to help me.
2 Let those who seek my life be put to shame and confounded;
let those who take pleasure in my misfortune draw back and be disgraced.
3 Let those who say to me "Aha!" and gloat over me turn back because of their shame.
4 Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation say forever, "Great is the LORD!"
5 But as for me, I am poor and needy; come to me quickly, O God.
You are my helper and my deliverer; O LORD, do not tarry.

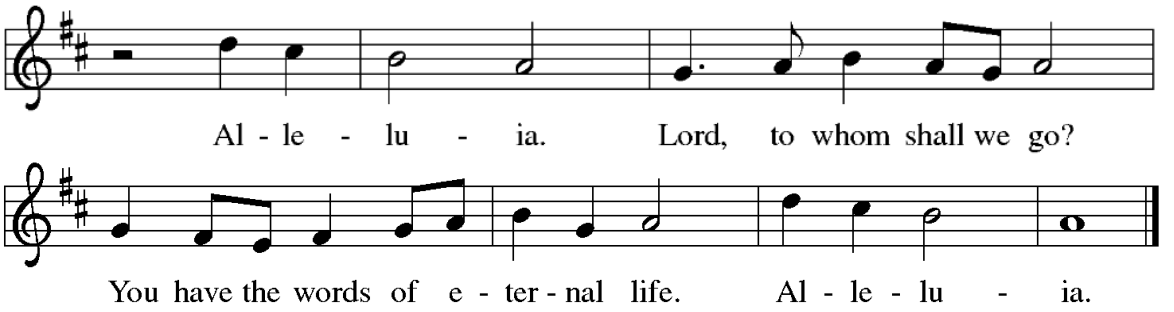

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Some of the Thessalonians are worried that dead Christians will be excluded from the resurrection to eternal life when Christ comes again. Paul reassures them with the word of hope that all Christians, living or dead, will be raised into everlasting life with Christ.

Lector: The Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Lector: The Holy Gospel according to Matthew, the 25th chapter.
All: Glory to you, O Lord.

HOLY GOSPEL: Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus tells a parable about his own second coming, emphasizing the need for readiness at all times.

Pastor: The Gospel of our Lord.
All: Praise to you, O Christ.

Please be seated.

SERMON Pastor Nancy Goede

Please stand as you are able.

HYMN OF THE DAY Blessed Assurance ELW #638

CREED

Assisting Minister: Let us confess our faith with the words of the Apostles' Creed.

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS

Assisting Minister: Each petition concludes, "God, in your mercy," and the congregation responds, "hear our prayer."

PEACE

Assisting Minister: The peace of Christ be with you always.

All: And also with you.

The congregation is invited to greet one another with the words,
"Peace be with you."

This announcement serves as official notice of our Congregation Meeting on Sunday, November 8, immediately following the late worship service (approximately 11:30 a.m.). Meet Our Council Member Nominees:

Carolyn Markle
My name is Carolyn Markle, and I am happily retired after 35 years of dedicated service with Waste Management.
My faith has always been an important part of my life. I have been a member of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church for 40 years, where I have had the blessing of serving in many different ways. I have served as an Usher, communion preparer, communion assistant, sang with SoulFire, assisted with VBS, music camp and also previously served on the Church Council. I have also attended the Grief Share group here at St. Matthew Lutheran Church. Being able to serve and give back to my church family is a true blessing.
I love to travel, especially cruising/traveling with my family. Some of my happiest moments are spent making memories with family who are very important to me. I also have a dog, Gibbs, which I love to take on walks and play in the backyard with when the weather is nice. In the last year, I added a cat, Binx, to my household as well.
Music is also a big part of my life. Whether I am listening to music or going to shows, music brings me joy and is always one of my favorite ways to relax and have fun.

I often can be seen at the Eichelberger Performing Arts Center attending the many shows that they bring to Hanover.
I am grateful for the many blessings God has provided me throughout my life, and I look forward to enjoying each new chapter that lies ahead.

Robin A Culp
In April 2002, I relocated to Hanover. Currently, I reside with my mother and my four-legged companion, Snickers. In May 2014, I joined the church, and I became actively involved in its activities in June 2023. Prior to my retirement in September 2024, I dedicated 44 years to working for PNC Bank.
Presently, I serve as the treasurer on the Board of Directors at Discovery Place. Additionally, I provide substitute teaching services as needed. I am also a member of the GLOW Committee and volunteer at VBS and Music Camp.

Ella Hostetter
My name is Ella Hostetter and I am a life-long member of St. Matthew. I have been a member of the Adult Choir for close to 40 years. I am a Stephen Minister and a Visiting Minister. I have been a long-time member of the Social Ministry Committee. I look forward to serving on Church Council.

Jody Ruhlman
I have been a member of St. Matthew for more than 40 years. My wife Deb (who is a life member) and I were married here in 1977. We have three grown children and six grandchildren. I have previously served 2 terms on council, with my final year as president. Currently I'm on Property Committee, which has given me an insight as to what keeps our church working.
I have met many amazing people here through the years and I'm looking forward to this opportunity to serve.

John Mancini
I have been a member at St. Matthew since 1995. Both of my children were baptized at St. Matthew. I have been active on multiple committees over the years. have served 2 times on both Church Council and Call Committee's and am currently a member on the Personnel Committee. I am honored to be serving again in any capacity.

Intergenerational Ornament Making

On November 15th during Faith Formation time, 9:30-10:20, we will be helping to make Christmas ornaments for the Cheer Bags. This allows youth and their families help spread joy for the many grateful recipients of the Cheer Bags. It is a great time to work beside old and young. Confirmation class will be meeting upstairs in youth suite and going down together. What a joy to work side by side with our friends of all ages as we create something that will spread joy to many!

Christmas Pageant

We are excited to begin a new tradition at St. Matthew! This year, our Christmas Pageant will be part of the 4:30 p.m. Family Service on Christmas Eve.

We invite you to register your child to be part of the wonderful story of our Savior's birth. It's a special opportunity for children to share the joy and wonder of Christmas with our church family.

All rehearsals will be held at 9:30 a.m. in Fellowship Hall on the following Sundays:

- November 29
- December 6
- December 13
- December 20

We look forward to sharing this new tradition with our children and families as we celebrate the birth of Jesus! Scan QR code to register today!

FIRST READING: Amos 5:18-24

Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD!
Why do you want the day of the LORD?
It is darkness, not light,
[19]as if someone fled from a lion
and was met by a bear
or went into the house and rested a hand
against the wall
and was bitten by a snake.
[20]Is not the day of the LORD darkness,
not light,
and gloom with no brightness in it?

[21]I hate, I despise your festivals, and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies.
[22]Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings,
I will not accept them,
and the offerings of well-being of your fatted animals
I will not look upon.
[23]Take away from me the noise of your songs;
I will not listen to the melody of your harps.
[24]But let justice roll down like water and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

Psalm 70

or Wisdom of Solomon 6:17-20

SECOND READING: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. [14]For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. [15]For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. [16]For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. [17]Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will be with the Lord forever. [18]Therefore encourage one another with these words.

GOSPEL: Matthew 25:1-13

[Jesus said to the disciples:] "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten young women took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. [2]Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. [3]When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, [4]but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. [5]As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. [6]But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' [7]Then all those young women got up and trimmed their lamps. [8]The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' [9]But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' [10]And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet, and the door was shut. [11]Later the other young women came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' [12]But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' [13]Keep awake, therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."
